

Kimberly Mielcarek

Vice President, Communications

Kimberly Mielcarek, who joined NERC in 2010, is vice president of Communications at NERC. In this role, she is responsible for directing all aspects of NERC's internal and external communications that contribute to furthering NERC's mission, including the development and oversight of communication strategies and initiatives, publications, branding, social media, and the website.

Ms. Mielcarek has more than 30 years of experience in the communications field. Prior to joining NERC, she was a senior communications strategist in the Office of the Chief of Public Affairs for the U.S. Army at the Pentagon. Prior to that, she was chief of Public Affairs for the Gulf Region Division of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in Baghdad, Iraq. She began her career as a journalist with the Gannett Company.

Ms. Mielcarek earned her bachelor's degree from Texas A&M University – College Station, Texas.